Presented by FEI Canada, Toronto Chapter
November 12 & 13, 2010
Ted Rogers School of Management, Ryerson University

It is with great pleasure that the Toronto Chapter of the Financial Executives International Canada announces the 5th Annual Best In Class Invitational Case Competition to be held on November 12-13, 2010 at the Ted Rogers School of Management, Ryerson University. FEI Canada Toronto Chapter, with the generous support of its sponsors, is very proud to be supporting business education in Canada with this unique case competition. The case is based upon an existing public company with company executives in attendance and presented to a live audience.

Now in its fifth year, invitations to the Best in Class competition were extended to eleven of the leading MBA schools across the country: Alberta School of Business, DeGroote School of Business, Desautels Faculty of Management, Haskayne School of Business, HEC Montréal, Richard Ivey School of Business, Rotman School of Management, Sauder School of Business, Schulich School of Business, Sobey School of Business and the Ted Rogers School of Management.

The competition will be fierce as teams from each of the participating MBA schools vie for the $10,000 first place prize and an invitation to attend the FEI Canada Annual Conference in Ottawa in June 2011. Business leaders selected by FEI Canada Toronto Chapter will form the esteemed panel of judges for the event.

The competition will end with a Reception and Awards Dinner at Hart House, University of Toronto. Individual tickets ($85 per person) or corporate tables (Tables of 8- $600) for the evening Reception and Awards Dinner are available for purchase by FEI Canada members, event sponsors, participating MBA schools and their alumni.

There is no charge or pre-registration required to attend the competition during the day. All FEI Canada members, friends, family, alumni and students are welcome and encouraged to come and support Best in Class and the MBA student teams at this stimulating event. It is a great opportunity for students who might be considering enrolling in business school to watch teams compete live from the top schools in Canada.

Please join us for some or all of the activities on Saturday November 13, 2010 and be inspired by Canada's best and brightest MBA students!
